

The Lincolnshire Poacher

Friday 27 August - Monday 30 August

ORGANISER: ROGER AND GLENYS FELLOWS • T:01952 825064 • E: GLENYS.ROGER@BLUEYONDER.CO.UK

The August Bank Holiday sees us in the historic city of Lincoln staying at the extensively refurbished, 14th century White Hart Hotel. www.whitehart-lincoln.co.uk This establishment is situated in the cathedral quarter on Bailgate, has private parking and is regarded as the finest hotel in the city .

As the second largest county in England, Lincolnshire lies in the East Midlands bordering Norfolk, Cambridgeshire, Rutland, Leicestershire, Nottinghamshire, South Yorkshire and Humberside - ooh and Northamptonshire for just 19 metres! Lincoln itself was established as a Roman fortress in 48AD.

It has museums and art galleries plus a Performing Arts Centre as well as many fine shops plus, of course the castle and the magnificent cathedral. There is also a Showground where events take place throughout the year, a Motor Museum exhibiting over 100 vehicles and Cadwell Park is only a short ride away where the British Superbike championships will be held this Bank holiday weekend

A full list of places to visit is shown on the Lincoln website. Within easy riding distance of the city there are several places of interest such as Tattershall Castle, Belvoir Castle, the home of the Duke and Duchess of Rutland, 17th century Belton House near Grantham and Burghley House, the Elizabethan mansion near Stamford. Also the Battle of Britain Flight is at RAF Coningsby.

No visit to Lincolnshire would be complete without a visit to Skegness so a ride out will be arranged for Sunday taking in The Wolds.

The White Hart Hotel, Lincoln is pet friendly so Daisy will be there to greet everyone.
